

Here are some possible Messages you might include in your postcard or letter.

- I hope you won't mind this quick reminder about an upcoming election.
- This is a Democrat-to-Democrat note to vote.
- This card and stamp are how I volunteer to promote a healthier Democracy.
- I'm voting to protect my children's and grandchildren's future.

- Thank you for being a voter.
- Join your neighbors in voting for someone who cares.
- Please make a plan to vote.
- Be a voter!

- Democracy gets stronger when you exercise your vote.
- Voting is your superpower!
- Your vote is special and so is this election.
- Democracy is on the ballot this year.

- Voting is one of the best habits you can start (and keep).
- I'm volunteering to write this because the stakes are so high.
- I am mailing this to you on my own dime because it's that important.
- Your vote will matter more than ever. (Yay you!)

- Democracy only works when more of us vote.
- Your Vote = Your Voice
- The system works when good voters like you elect good people to office.
- The outcome of this election will be decided by voters like you.
- These days, every election needs committed voters like you.

- History is made by those who show up...and vote!
- I'm taking time to write this, hoping you'll take time to vote.
- Tape this card to your fridge.
- Save this note to help remind you to vote.

- I'm writing with a shared hope for a better future through voting.
- Your vote is special and important, and this is a very close election.
- Your friends would appreciate a friendly reminder to vote. Tell them.

Special messages for this primary election:

- Please vote [Yes/No] on Measure _____. (Find out about party endorsements first.)
- Local races are also important! Support _____ for City Council.
- If we pay more attention to primaries, we'll get better candidates over time.