Helping Displaced Voters

If you have voters who lost their homes in the 2020 wildfires and are still displaced or changing addresses, please tell them to contact the Jackson County Elections Office (see contact information above) for help.

If they are still Jackson County residents, they may be able to change their mailing address in order to receive a ballot by mail. They may also re-register with the Elections Office, either by mail or in person. They may also be able to pick up a ballot in person at the office.
